New Home Guarantee

Fact Sheet 2021/22

1 July 2021

What is the First Home Loan Deposit Scheme?

The First Home Loan Deposit Scheme (FHLDS) is an Australian Government initiative to support eligible first home buyers to build or purchase a new home sooner. The Scheme is administered by the National Housing Finance and Investment Corporation (NHFIC). Usually first home buyers with less than a 20 per cent deposit need to pay lenders mortgage insurance. Under the Scheme, eligible first home buyers can purchase or build a new home with a deposit of as little as 5 per cent (lenders criteria apply). This is because NHFIC guarantees to a participating lender up to 15 percent of the value of the property purchased that is financed by an eligible first home buyer's home loan.

What is the New Home Guarantee?

In the 2020-21 Federal Budget, the Australian Government announced an additional 10,000 scheme places for the 2020-21 financial year known as the New Home Guarantee, specifically for eligible first home buyers building or purchasing new homes. Under the 2021-22 Federal Budget, a further 10,000 New Home Guarantee places will be available from 1 July 2021 to 30 June 2022.

How does the New Home Guarantee work?

Eligible first home buyers looking to build or purchase a new home are able to apply for a loan to purchase an eligible property through a participating lender, up until 30 June 2022. Eligible borrowers can use the New Home Guarantee in conjunction with other government programs like the First Home Super Saver Scheme, Home Builder grant or state and territory First Home Owner Grants and stamp duty concessions. The guarantee is not a cash payment or a deposit for your home loan.

What types of properties are eligible?

Eligible residential properties generally include:

- newly-constructed dwellings
- off-the-plan dwellings
- house and land packages
- land and a separate contract to build a new home.

A newly-constructed dwelling can also be one where a home has been substantially renovated, or knocked down and rebuilt, by the vendor – thus creating a 'newly-constructed dwelling'. There are particular requirements which apply for each type of property. Contact a participating lender for more details.

What are the timeframes for the New Home Guarantee?

If you are purchasing a new home:

- you must enter into a contract of sale to purchase your new home within 90 days of being pre-approved
- for an off-the-plan property, the contract of sale must be dated on or after 7 October 2020. Generally, the building of your off-the-plan property must start within 12 months of the contract of sale and finish within 24 months. For Scheme place reservations made prior to 1 July 2021, the building start date must be within 6 months of the contract of sale.
- for a newly constructed dwelling, the dwelling must have been completed on or after 1 January 2020.

If you are building a new home (either under a house and land package or as a land and separate contract to build a home):

- you must enter into an eligible building contract within 90 days of being pre-approved; and
- you must start building within 12 months of entering into the eligible building contract and finish building within 24 months of starting. For reservations made prior to 1 July 2021, the building start date must be within 6 months of entering into the eligible building contract.

What property price thresholds apply for the New Home Guarantee?

The New Home Guarantee assists in the building or purchase of a new home. The value of the new home must not exceed the relevant price cap for the area in which it is located. The price caps for capital cities, large regional centres and regional areas are:
